

CATHOLIC EVANGELIZATION STUDIES COURSE

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Forming missionary disciples of Jesus Christ who embrace the spiritual, theological, and pastoral tasks of the New Evangelization.

What is the Catholic Evangelization Studies Course?

Established by Bishop David Ricken, the four-part Catholic Evangelization Studies Course (CES) is a partnership between the Office of Discipleship Formation at Diocese of Green Bay, Silver Lake College of the Holy Family, and Holy Resurrection Monastery to provide spiritual, theological, and pastoral formation in the New Evangelization.

The four phases are:

- Phase I: Formation in Prayer
- Phase II: Formation in Discipleship
- Phase III: Formation in Worship
- Phase IV: Formation in Mission

Participants will leave the seminars with tools that will enable them to craft deep habits of prayer, articulate the evangelical and ecclesial foundations for evangelization and implement a mission-centered vision for their parishes. The course is perfect for those who wish to deepen their own understanding of the New Evangelization and embrace of Christ's call to discipleship.

What do I get at the end of the course?

Each participant will receive a Catholic Evangelization Studies level one Diploma of Completion signed by a representative from Silver Lake College and the Office of Discipleship Formation.

Why are there four phases?

The course necessitates a four-phase seminar series to cover the foundations of the encounter with Christ (Discover Jesus - CES I), accompaniment of Christ (Follow Jesus - CES II), the sacramental and community life of Christ (Worship Jesus - CES III), and the missionary imperative of Christ and His mission (Share Jesus - CES IV).

These are designed to be taken sequentially, thus only open to those who have taken the previous phases. Together they help participants to understand the connection between evangelization, discipleship, catechesis, and mission.

Where will the courses be held?

The courses will be held at Silver Lake College of the Holy Family, located at:
2406 South Alverno Road
Manitowoc, WI 54220

What are the times for each day?

Breakfast begins at 7:30 a.m. If students do not need breakfast, they should arrive by 8:30 a.m. for morning prayer. The day/experience ends at 9:00 p.m. each day. Full participation is required for the course.

Who are the instructors?

Instructors include Sr. Marie Kolbe Zamora, Julianne Stanz, and guest presenters. Spiritual exercises for the course are provided by the Monks of Holy Resurrection Monastery.
